Helicopter in search for rogue trader

A POLICE helicopter and armed officers swooped in Haverhill to search for suspects after a rogue trading incident on Tuesday afternoon.

Officers were called to a property in Chalkstone Way at 1.30pm after reports of three men going into the back garden of house owned by an elderly resident.

Police attended the scene and spoke to the resident, a man in his 80s.

They learned that the three men had told the resident that they could do some repairs to his property, before leaving abruptly.

A search was carried out, involving a police helicopter and firearms officers.

A local woman said: "My son was quite frightened when he got home as he had seen all the police and he said they had guns."

A 29-year-old man from Witham was arrested in connection with the incident.

HANNAH MIRSKY

The man was taken to Bury St Edmunds Police Investigation Centre for questioning, and has now been released on bail until Wednesday, June 17, pending further inquiries.

Police are appealing for witnesses and information. Anyone who saw or heard anything suspicious in the area, or has any information about the incident, is asked to contact Bury St Edmunds CID on 101 quoting reference HH/15/944.

You can also call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

A spokesperson for the police gave this advice on how to avoid being targeted by rogue traders:

■ Don't open your door to anyone you are not comfortable with or expecting – use your door chain and viewer to check

■ Always ask for identification from any unexpected callers and do not let anyone in if you are not comfortable with who they are and verify their identity with the company they work for

■ If you wish to leave your back door open because of the summer temperatures keep the door in view – do not open the back door and then go into the garden

■ Ensure that your front door is kept locked when you are in the house

■ If anyone calls claiming to be from the utility companies such as water, gas, electricity or the council do not let them in. Unless they can quote to you on the doorstep your personal account number which is found on your bills. If you are at all suspicious then phone the police immediately.

KING OF THE MUD: Above, Geoff Carter, top centre, with fellow contestants and right, Geoff Carter, Mathew Green and Jacqui Kemp face the eating challenge

Businessman says 'get me out of here'

A BUSINESSMAN has won a coveted title – by eating pig's testicles and sticking his hand in a box of cockroaches.

Geoff Carter, of Haverhill company Saffron Insurance, was crowned "King of the Mud" at St Nicholas Hospice Care's first "I'm a CEO...Get Me Out of Here!" event.

He was one of eight local businesspeople to take part in the fundraising challenge on Friday.

The contestants had to complete a range of country-themed challenges throughout the day.

One of the most difficult was the eating challenge, in which they munched their way through a plate of dune tiger beetles, sago worms, large crickets, pig testicles and pig penis.

Another challenge involved the contestants sticking their hands into boxes of giant Madagascar hissing cockroaches and death's head cockroaches to find five gold stars.

Mr Carter said after his win: "There were some good challenges and some not so good challenges but – best of all – all the competitors were great fun and everyone got into the spirit. The most important thing is we have raised valuable funds for St Nicholas Hospice Care."

During the "feely challenge", the businesspeople were blindfolded and handed animals – a scorpion, a python, a skinny pig, a chameleon and a skunk – and asked to work out what they were.

Jamie Mintram, of Jurassic Encounters, of Weeting, which supplied and cared for the animals on the day, said: "Most of the animals are rescue animals. Dusty the North American striped skunk hasn't been de-scented and he is a house skunk – he likes sitting on my lap and having a belly tickle. Perky, the albino skinny pig, and his brother Pinky were found walking up Thetford high street a couple of years ago."

"Matilda, the python, was also rescued. Her previous owner wasn't very nice and she was covered in burns when we got her. She has never shown any aggression to anyone, even when we were treating her."

Other challenges included driving a tractor and manoeuvring a fork-lift truck without spilling a trough of water.

Competitor Colin Roberts, of Arc Shopping Centre in Bury St Edmunds, came third. He said: "The worst part was the eating challenge, as they were all pretty disgusting, but especially the testicles. I wouldn't want to repeat that and I think I'll be brushing my teeth as soon as I get home."

"I enjoyed the forklift truck challenge the most, while I was physically shaking after the tractor one – it was the adrenaline."

Each of the competitors were asked to raise £1,000 to take part. So far, more than £6,500 has been collected.

St Nicholas Hospice Care provides care for people with long-term and life-threatening illnesses, and runs Haverhill's Burton Centre.

High school reunion for Castle Manor class of '85

The reunion marks 30 years since the students left the school and is being organised by former Castle Manor pupil Nicola Roger, who organised a similar reunion in 2002.

She said: "That reunion went really well, and I just thought it would be nice to have another one.

"It's just trying to get people together again."

She is already expecting about 30 people to attend, and is hoping more will get in touch.

Tickets for the event cost £5 and can be bought from Nicola by calling her on 07932 275036.

Residents escape devastating fire at £1.4 million home

A GARAGE at a £1.4 million home in West Wrattling was destroyed by fire.

Fire crews believe a nearby fire pit was to blame for the blaze at the property in Mill Road, which broke out just before 3pm on Saturday.

The fire service was alerted after a resident noticed signs of fire while mowing the lawn, called the emergency services, and made sure the house was safely evacuated.

Crews from Linton, Cambridge, two crews from Haverhill, two crews from Newmarket and a crew from Clare, Suffolk, all attended, making about 35 firefighters in total at the scene at the height of the incident.

Eight firefighters wearing breathing apparatus used hose reels, jets and hydrants to extinguish the blaze at the property, which is listed for sale online with an asking price of £1.375 million.

They also used a variety of different ladders to gain access to the roof and crews had to cut away the roof of the timber and brick garage to stop the flames from spreading.

The fire was extinguished by 5.30pm, and the incident was then scaled down.

However, crews remained on the property until after 8pm to continue cutting away, damping down, and checking for hotspots.

JORDAN DAY & HANNAH MIRSKY

A two-storey building measuring 30m by 20m and its roof were heavily involved in the fire, and the adjoining house was also damaged. Nobody was injured in the blaze.

Station commander Wayne Swales said the fire was accidental.

He said: "A fire pit was located too close to the garage and spread, resulting in the fire starting."

"As with any form of controlled burn, we would urge residents to locate it well away from property, fencing or foliage to avoid situations like this happening."

A spokesman for Cambridgeshire Fire and Rescue Service said: "Firefighters wearing breathing apparatus tackled the fire using hose reels and jets, and cut through the roof to make fire breaks and prevent it spreading further."

"Part of the attached house was also damaged in the fire but luckily no one was injured. The last crew left at around 8.15pm."

A resident at the damaged property, who did not wish to be named, said: "We are intensely grateful to the fire service."

TUESDAY was the deadline to apply for a postal vote for the elections on May 7.

Polling cards for postal votes are now being sent out to homes across St Edmundsbury Borough, and they should arrive by early next week.

Anyone who does not receive their papers by April 30 is urged to contact the elections team at St Edmundsbury by emailing elections@forest-heath.gov.uk or elections@stedsb.gov.uk. They may also call the team 01638 719000 or 01284 763233.

Get on your bike with brand new sporting event for town

CYCLISTS in Haverhill can take part in a new challenge this August.

The organisers of the HaverHalf half marathon and the Haver10 10k run have set up a 50km and 100km cycle rides (Haver50 and the Haver100).

There's also the HaverUltra, a whopping 200km course for those wanting a bigger challenge. The overall event is called HaverSportive.

The events will all take place on Sunday, August 16, and will start and finish at Castle Manor Academy.

The funds raised will go towards the Haverhill Scout and Guide new building fund.

Ruth Walker, event organiser and assistant Scout leader, said: "We've seen how popular competing in athletics events in Haverhill is by last year's successes, so hopefully we can build on that with the sportive."

TOUGH: Last year's HaverTri

"The three distances afford a chance for cyclists of all ages and abilities to get involved in one of the events so hopefully we'll be well supported."

Question time for candidates

THE people of Haverhill turned out to St Mary's Church in Market Square on Friday night to quiz their parliamentary candidates.

The hustings event was chaired by the Rev Canon Graham Owen, assistant priest at the church, and five MP hopefuls were there to answer questions and try to win over the voters.

The first to speak was Liberal Democrat Elfreda Tealby-Watson.

She said: "Unless you've got adequate education, housing and healthcare, you cannot function as a member of society. I believe we have a good costed plan to deliver these things."

She said that she knows West Suffolk well as her father is from Newmarket.

Conservative Matthew Hancock, who has been MP for West Suffolk for the last five years, said that unemployment in Haverhill is down by 50 per cent, and the number of apprenticeships available in the town has doubled.

He also highlighted the building of the Churchill Free School, saying: "I would defy anybody to say that the free school programme has not helped the children who go there."

Mr Hancock was followed by the youngest of the West Suffolk candidates, 24-year-old Niall Pettitt, who is standing for the Green Party.

Mr Pettitt, who grew up in Mildenhall, outlined Green policies he thought would help local people, including reducing energy bills by improving home insulation, better public transport, and £12 billion invested in the NHS.

The fourth candidate to speak was UKIP's Julian

Flood, currently a Suffolk county councillor for Haverhill Cangle.

He said as county councillor he had worked with fellow UKIP councillor Tony Brown to try to have land released for building homes and to push for greater expenses transparency, but they had been voted down by other parties.

The final candidate to speak before questions was Labour's Michael Jefferys, currently a Forest Heath district councillor.

He said the thing he wanted to tackle was inequality, which he said was "approaching Victorian levels".

He outlined policies he supported, which included putting more resources into the NHS, stopping the exploitation of migrant workers, taking on the energy companies and addressing the housing crisis.

NHS, the EU and education . . .

■ Haverhill's medical practices are struggling to recruit staff. What will you do about this?

MJ In the long term this means finding more nurses and doctors. I think that the problems arose because of the marketisation of the NHS.

ET-W There's only one short-term solution, which is to allow professional workers into our country.

MH Training up professionals takes years, and is a long term plan. In the short-term we could extend opening hours to weekends and evenings.

NP The emphasis needs to be on better facilities in our pharmacies, better community health services and more focus on preventative care.

JF The problem in Haverhill is that people get ill earlier, but they're not funding for it.

■ Why can't we come out of the EU tomorrow?

ET-W I am a passionate supporter of the EU, but we need to revisit some of its policies.

Here are the candidates' responses to three of the questions posed . . .

MH I have voted four times to have a referendum. Anyone who wants to represent Haverhill needs to say: "Am I listening to my constituents if I deny them a vote?"

NP You have not been given a vote on whether you want to be part of the EU. We want a referendum, but the EU has brought benefits.

JF Since 1997, nine million people have come into the country, two million since 2011. We can't go on like this.

MJ Since the EU was set up we have had understanding and agreement. To leave would leave us in great difficulty.

■ What are your policies on education?

MH It should be our goal that everybody leaving school or college goes to university or an apprenticeship. We took a controversial decision on fees so that those who go to university and get a good job pay back the cost.

NP Burdening young people with debt is a disguise for the lack of opportunity available. The Green Party will make sure that students are funded through their first degree.

MJ I would like to see a graduate tax taking a penny off the income of every person who graduates to fund university, but that needs to be looked into.

JF We make it too important to get a degree. The sort of degree you get matters more. I'd like to see fewer degrees and more apprenticeships.

ET-W The real necessity is early-years provision. There's a discrepancy with how children read and write when they leave primary school.

Join us at our new venue for WI . . .

HAVERHILL Owls evening WI is enjoying its new venue at the Burton Centre, Camps Road. We now meet on the second Tuesday of the month at 7.30pm. We would love to welcome newcomers to our group which has talks, entertainment, walks and outings.

In April, Rosemary Wheeler amused us with her tales of life as a woman butcher in Lavenham during the war years. It was odd to see a tiny, well turned-out lady with a vast array of implements that she had used at the family shop whilst her brothers were away at war.

In May we will be going to Lavenham for a walk and a cream tea at the Swan and will be able to see Rosemary's old family shop, still a butcher's.

So come along and see us at the Burton Centre and have some fun.

Help us put diabetes on the agenda

DIABETES is one of the biggest health threats facing the UK. A staggering 3.8 million people are living with diabetes, and the increasing number of people being diagnosed with the condition is posing a real threat to the sustainability of our health service both locally and nationally.

Although there are some excellent examples of good diabetes care both here in Suffolk and across the country, there are still too many people with diabetes who are not getting the care or support they need to manage their condition well.

Poor care is fuelling soaring rates of life-threatening diabetes-related complications such as blindness, amputations and strokes. These complications are not only personally devastating for those involved but are also extremely costly to the health service. Diabetes accounts for 10 per cent of the entire NHS budget, costing £10 billion a year, and 80 per cent of this is spent on managing potentially avoidable complications.

With the General Election campaign under way, we want to let our political leaders know that diabetes is a problem we simply can't afford to ignore. This is why we are appealing to people in Suffolk to add their voice to our campaign calling on politicians to put diabetes on the political agenda, both in run-up to the election and throughout the next Parliament. We are asking people to help raise awareness of the seriousness of diabetes with any of their local candidates they come into contact with.

By putting diabetes on the national agenda, we can ensure that lives are saved and costs to the NHS greatly reduced.

Ofsted give school a good report

A SCHOOL is celebrating after Ofsted inspectors judged it to be "good" with "outstanding early years provision".

The report said levels of achievement at Castle Camps Church of England Primary School in Church Road, Castle Camps, were "impressive".

It was particularly positive about the school's early years provision, saying of pupils who join the school in Reception: "Outstanding leadership and high quality provision in a safe, stimulating setting enable them to acquire the good behaviours and positive attitudes needed for their learning to flourish."

Headteacher Alexandra O'Connor said: "The report clearly demonstrates the tremendous contribution our whole community has made towards achieving this excellent result. We are immensely proud of our school and look forward to building on this success in the future."

Camera gift for Headway

IN FOCUS: Front from left, Headway client Maggie Smith, senior rehab support Tracy Snow and client Christine Moreton; back, rehab support staff Megan James and Lisa Murfitt

A DIGITAL camera, memory card and camera case have been presented to a Haverhill rehabilitation group.

The Headway Suffolk group, which meets every Wednesday to help people with acquired brain injuries, will use the camera to help people document their lives and try creative projects.

Helen Fairweather, chief executive at Headway Suffolk, said: "Stimulation helps the brain to recover. We are possibly giving the camera to people who haven't done much photography before, so they can learn a new skill."

The camera was donated by Crem Recruitment, a Haverhill-based company which organised a raffle to fundraise for the donation. They raised the £140 they needed for the camera, and the winner of the raffle, Julie Bell of Fibregrip, Haverhill, received an Easter Hamper.

The camera was presented at the Burton Centre on April 15.

SUPERHUMAN: Participants at last year's superhero walk in Nowton Park, Bury St Edmunds

Superheroes needed for fundraising walk

IS it a bird? Is it a plane? No, it's a local man taking part in a charity walk.

St Nicholas Hospice Care is asking all wannabe superheroes to put on a costume and take part in a fundraising walk on May 31.

The five-mile walk around Haverhill will start at the Burton Centre in Camps Road at 2.30pm that day, with registration there from 1pm.

Participants will be given a pie and a pint at the end of the race – with vegetarian and non-alcoholic options available – and walkers aged 10 to 17 must be with an adult.

For more information or to request a registration form, call Jenny on 01284 715583, email jenny.baskett@stnh.org.uk or sign up online at www.stnicholashospicecare.co.uk

Registration costs £15.

Polling station access concern

HANNAH MIRSKY

A COUNCILLOR has raised concerns about voters' "democratic rights" being affected by limited access to a polling station.

Cllr Ernie Goody says that the redevelopment of Strassbourg Square by St Edmundsbury Borough Council means access to the Chalkstone Community Centre is limited.

He raised the issue at a meeting of Haverhill Town Council's planning committee on Tuesday night.

Cllr Goody said at the meeting: "The contractors have stopped up both footpaths... it has made it impossible to gain access to the shops and the community centre."

"I am concerned because in two weeks' time that centre will be a polling station, and that affects our democratic right."

"If you are in a wheelchair, access is very difficult into there."

He says that the main access to the square is by going across the grass at the back of the community centre, which is not suitable for a buggy or wheelchair when it rains.

Cllr Goody's wife is permanently in a wheelchair, and has applied for a postal vote so that she does not face the difficulties of getting to a polling station.

Cllr Goody said after the meeting: "She can't be the only one who's in a wheelchair and it must be really hard to get out there."

"I am really concerned about democracy. It's hard enough to get people to vote as it is. I know I'm biased because I'm standing, but it affects all the candidates."

A spokesman for St Edmundsbury Borough Council said: "The path on the north-east corner is closed as this leads directly onto the site, where works are being carried out."

"The path on the north-west corner is closed as this is being trafficked by contractor machinery, and the shortcut (over grass and sloped paving) that this fencing had initially created has been blocked off to negate the risk to pedestrians."

"There will be access to the community centre from the south of the square, with disabled access from the path leading from Ingham Road and from the community centre car park."

New senior police officer joins force

A NEW assistant chief constable has been appointed to Suffolk police.

Rachel Kearton will be in charge of local policing, permanently replacing Tim Newcomb, who retired in 2013.

David Skevington will remain in the post until she arrives in late summer.

Assistant Chief Constable Kearton has been policing for more than 20 years, in West Yorkshire before joining Northumbria Police in 2007.

She has worked as head of Northumbria's specialist uniform policing services, as area policing commander in two separate districts and as head of Northumbria's Human Resources Department.

She joins the Suffolk force from her most recent role on secondment with the Foreign and Commonwealth Office in Turkey.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Woman in hospital with facial cut after car accident

A WOMAN in her 70s was taken to hospital after a car accident in Hundon on Monday.

The ambulance service was called to the scene, in Stradishall Road in Hundon, shortly after 1pm, after a car went off the road and into a dry ditch.

The woman was trapped inside the car and four fire crews from Clare, Haverhill, Wickhambrook and Long Melford attended to release her.

She was released by 2pm and all fire crews had left the scene by 2.26pm.

She was treated by the ambulance service for a small cut to her face, and taken by ambulance to West Suffolk Hospital for further treatment.

Men urged to seek help in Depression Awareness Week

MEN with depression are being urged to come forward during an awareness week which aims to reduce the stigma around the illness.

Norfolk and Suffolk NHS Foundation Trust is hoping that Depression Awareness Week, which runs until Sunday, will encourage men to ask for help, as they are less likely to do so than women.

Depression is diagnosed when someone feels low for weeks or months, and cannot enjoy everyday life, concentrate or sleep properly.

You can access the trust's Wellbeing services without going through a GP by calling 0300 123 1781.

Coffee morning at church

A CHURCH is holding a coffee morning to raise money.

The event will take place on Saturday from 10am to noon at St Mary's Church in Sturmer.

Drinks and refreshments will be on sale, and there will be a White Elephant stall as well as stalls selling cakes and plants.

The event has been organised by the Friends of St Mary's Church, and all proceeds go to the church.

Village music bash planned

A "MUSIC Bash" will take place in West Wratting this summer with bands playing at the village's recreation ground and sports pavilion.

It will go on until 11pm both days, starting at 7pm on July 10 and 2pm on July 11. There will also be a bar, a barbecue, tractor rides and tombola.

Local runners prepare to take on London Marathon

THREE runners from Haverhill are gearing up to take part in the London Marathon.

Charlotte Hunter Billson, 34, Vicky Marsh, 22, and Siobhan Dockerill, 27, are all taking part in the 26.2-mile run through the capital, which takes place on Sunday.

They are each using the sporting feat to raise money and awareness about medical problems that have affected their loved ones.

Charlotte, an actress who has appeared in Emmerdale and Doctors, and was the stunt double for Emma Watson as Hermione Granger in the Harry Potter films, is fundraising for the Cystic Fibrosis Trust. She has been inspired by her brother, who died from cystic fibrosis aged 19. The condition causes sufferers' internal organs to become clogged in thick, sticky mucus.

She said: "For the brave and inspirational person my younger brother was and for all the other people who live with cystic fibrosis, I'm putting in 26 miles of hard work, but it doesn't compare to what they go through on a daily basis just to stay alive."

Vicky, a student midwife who lives on the Strawberry Fields estate, is fundraising for Lupus UK, a charity that supports people suffering from lupus. Vicky's mum Julie has suffered from the disease, which affects the immune system, since Vicky was a child.

She said: "Nobody knows about lupus, so I'm just doing it to raise awareness and raise a bit of money."

Siobhan, a full-time mum who lives in Green Road, is fundraising for the British Heart Foundation after heart problems affected both her dad and her friend's baby daughter.

Siobhan's dad Geoff Rootes suffered a heart attack in 2008, and was saved thanks to clot-busting drugs and a stent he had fitted.

Dotti Allard, the baby daughter of a friend of Siobhan's, was born in April 2013 with a hole in her heart, and had to have a six-hour operation to close it last year.

All three of them are running the marathon for the first time.

Hollie McNish

Hollie McNish, Cambridge Junction, Tuesday, May 5 at 8pm. Tickets £11 from (01223) 511511 / junction.co.uk.

Bright, funny and to the point, spoken word artist Hollie McNish is as direct and impressive as her poems. Ahead of a headline poetry tour ELLA WALKER gets a glimpse into her world

HOLLIE McNish is drinking fruit tea and wearing a huge jumper emblazoned with a bear.

Since we last spoke in 2013, the Cambridge poet has scrapped the fear of doing a gig on her own and is preparing for a bona fide tour. It's a fairly new thing in itself; a touring poet.

Aside from Peterborough's Mark Grist and the Mercury Prize nominated Kate Tempest, Hollie's testing new ground, and you'll get to see her do it at Cambridge Junction.

"Whenever people ask who [my tour agency] are working with and they say a poet, everyone laughs, it's really annoying," she says. "I wanna prove that it can work."

Taking inspiration from stand-up comics, she's successfully put off pressure to get more theatrical. "Whenever you start doing things on your own in poetry lots of people push you towards doing Edinburgh, in a more theatrical sense, but I'm totally rubbish at that. Honestly, the idea of doing more than standing on a stage and reading a poem and just talking to people; I just don't know if I could do it ever."

If you haven't come across Hollie's work before, head to YouTube. You'll find poems on football, parenthood and breastfeeding. Her most famous of which, "Embarrassed", has more than one million hits and garners quite a reaction if she doesn't perform it – a group of midwives in Leeds cornered her and demanded she read it in the lobby after a gig.

"It's really exciting, it's a bit surreal to be honest," buzzes Hollie on the way things have progressed, explaining how she's also co-writing a play about the history of women's football with fellow spoken word artist Sabrina Mahfouz, and putting together an illustrated edition of her pregnancy and parenthood diaries.

Countdown to Eel Fest

THOUSANDS of people will be heading for Ely next weekend to celebrate the city's association with the humble eel.

Ely Eel Festival – one of the highlights of the city's events calendar – will see a whole host of eel-related activities taking place from Friday, May 1 through to Monday, May 4.

And this year's event, held in partnership with Haverhill Weekly News' sister paper, the Ely News, promises to be one of the biggest and fun-filled to date.

It all kicks off with the City Centre Business Eel Throwing Competition on Ely Market Place on the Friday. Retailers and businesses will battle it out to be crowned 'City Centre Eel Throwing Business of the Year' – sponsored by Ely News.

On the Saturday the action begins with the ever-popular eel procession.

Starting at 10.30am, the parade – led by a giant eel, Ely's Samba Band and town criers – will start from Cross Green next to the cathedral and will head along part of the city's Eel Trail Heritage Walk, down to the Waterside ending in Jubilee

JORDAN DAY

Gardens. In the gardens, there will be folk music, the annual town crier competition, dancing, historical displays, the World Eel Throwing Competition, basket weaving and tanks of real eels brought along by the Environment Agency.

The Eel Food Safari will also see restaurants and cafés producing special festival dishes/ menus such as eel-shaped biscuits, jelly eel fudge and moj-eel-tas cocktails. Participating venues will display an Eel Food Safari logo to show they are part of the promotion, which is running throughout the weekend.

The Food and Drink Festival on Sunday and Monday on Palace Green also ties in with the Eel Festival and will see a fantastic line up of cookery demonstrations from stars including Valentine Warner, Jean-Christophe Novelli and Alex Rushmer.

Tracey Harding, tourism team leader at East Cambridgeshire District Council, which organises the extravaganza, said: "The eel is synonymous with the Isle of Ely ever since the city paid over 80,000 eels to Peterborough for stones to build the cathedral.

"So it makes sense for us to celebrate the humble eel and its part in our history. Every year, our festival gets bigger and better – so from an event which used to last a day – we now have a four-day extravaganza.

"With so much to see and do – I am sure the crowds will be huge to celebrate Ely's culture and traditions."

ROUND UP

BOOKS:

Lord Archer is taking a trip from his Grantchester home to Ely to discuss his latest novel, Mightier Than The Sword.

It is book five in his Clifton Chronicles series (there are still two more to come), following on from 2014's Be Careful What You Wish For, and starts with an IRA bomb explosion on the MV Buckingham's maiden voyage across the Atlantic. From there we tumble back into the complicated and illustrious lives of the Clifton and Barrington families. Expect more than a few plot twists.

Now 75, as you probably know, Archer has deftly handled a career that started with being an MP, careened through bankruptcy and a prison sentence for perjury, and has recovered from it all to become the only author in history to top the bestseller lists in fiction, short stories and non-fiction.

Whether you like him or not, you can't deny the man is impressive, and prolific, when it comes to writing. Go quiz him on how the hell he does it.

Jeffrey Archer, St Peter's Church, Ely, Friday, April 24 at 7.30pm. Tickets £6-£7 from (01353) 645005 / toppingbooks.co.uk.

Theatre:

Father and son duo, James and Jack Fox, star in letter writing Roger and Charlie Mortimer's Dear Lupin at Cambridge Arts Theatre.

Dear Lupin, Cambridge Arts Theatre, Monday, May 4 – Saturday, May 9 at 7.45pm. Tickets £15-£35 from (01223) 503333 / cambridgeartstheatre.com.

Music:

Cambridge Summer Music Festival: Music in Quiet Places and Spring Concerts, various dates and times. Tickets available from (01223) 357851 / cornex.co.uk. More details at cambridgesummermusic.com.

MUSIC

I am Kloot

Mancunian rockers I Am Kloot are back with a new live album, Hold Back The Night, and a new tour, coming to Cambridge Junction.

ELLA WALKER caught up with frontman and wheezy joker John Bramwell (Johnny Dangerously when he's touring solo) to discuss how he's 'wangled' making music his life

WE'VE [John, bassist Peter Jobson and drummer Andy Hargreaves] done six albums over the last 14 years, so that's about 140 odd songs. Every tour there's a lot we never get to play because obviously, we're playing the new stuff. This tour, like the live album, is our favourite songs which we've not been able to play, because unless we do Bruce Springsteen three-hour shows, we wouldn't be able to play all this old stuff and new stuff. We're playing some songs from every album we've made.

I started playing, when I was 5 or 6, my sister's guitar. She'd been having lessons and I think the lessons were a bit rigid and not really very inspiring so she lost interest and I just started miming along to stuff on the radio. My next door neighbour's older brother was learning guitar and they gave me his book with simple chords and songs in it, so I just started doing that. I started making up songs when I was 12 or 13 and it was just the idea of well, I wonder if I could wangle it so I could just do this? There's a lot of work that actually goes into wangling that ideal situation. So the actual playing and writing and recording and performing is a real pleasure.

I'd have been a racing driver obviously. Fireman, train driver, astronaut, haha. I think probably, if the guitar hadn't existed or there were no pianos around, I would have gravitated towards painting. I was always very science orientated at school if anything, but I like to read a lot, I like poetry, but as an actual job, I think I might have ended up doing something in the sciences.

I have had jobs, I've done van delivery driving... a good job for a musician because you'd get all your deliveries done and work extra hours, which meant you could get all Friday off, so you could still go and gig and rehearse. Also, you spend a lot of time on your own as you're driving. I used to actually do a lot of writing, I'd have a recorder on the seat. I used to drive along singing and making stuff up.

Our first play on the John Peel show that we got years back was a major highlight; as was our first time at Glastonbury, we've done Glastonbury four or five times now on different stages; when we had our first LP out, I'd been writing songs at the point for over 15 years and so just the idea that people in the world were going to get to hear my stuff and thinking a lot of people are listening to this right now.

I think From Your Favourite Sky I like playing live most, when I do my solo gigs and when I do it with the band. I think one way or another, it's my best song. I don't know how it happened really, I was just walking around in Manchester one day and started humming.

Like a lot of songs that are my personal favourites, I didn't sit down with a guitar and write it, I just found myself singing it and then I had to go home and work out what it was.

I got the new Hookworms album. That's really great, they're from Leeds and they're kind of like the Sonic Attack record by Hawkwind. I think if you just heard the LP you might find it a bit full on, but that's what I like about it. And I still listen to a lot of old stuff as well.

People always say you're not massive or anything, but to my mind I am. If I look out at 500-600 people at a gig... It doesn't feel small to me. I always think you should come and stand where I'm stood sometimes.

Haverhill boys clinch winter league crown on sets won

HAVERHILL Tennis Club's under-18 boys' team equalled the achievements of the men's team by winning the Halstead & District Junior Winter League, Division One.

The squad of Sam Howard, Sam McDonald, Andreas Kitsis, Carrick Maley, Greg Birch and Aaron Thorne lost just one match over the winter season, a 12-7 defeat to Mountnessing.

The loss made for an exciting campaign, but the Haverhill team, coached by Rob Jeffs, came out on top of the division having won more sets than their rivals.

The team have now started their summer campaign and opened with a win over Dunmow in their first match.

COLIN Bradnam will join Haverhill professional Paul Wilby for the regional final of the PGA Lombard Trophy after winning the club's qualifying competition.

Bradnam went round in nett 64 to top the field of 109 competitors, with his round comprising birdies on the second and eighth holes.

They head to King's Lynn for the regional final on July 16 where they will battle it out to secure a place in the grand final at Gleneagles.

The medal event doubled up as the first round of the Cecil Darken competition and saw Bradnam win Division One, with Trevor Broomfield second on countback from Allen O'Donoghue after both scored 70.

John Annand won Division Two on 65, one ahead of Pat McGarr. Gary Cowley was third on 67.

Richard Elding took Division Three on countback from Chris Gavin, with both finishing on 71, and Lee Russell placed third after scoring 72.

Shinn delight as safety is secured

MICHAEL Shinn praised his Haverhill Rovers squad after they made certain of their Thurlow Nunn League, Premier Division status with a 1-1 draw away to Mildenhall.

Matt Green gave Mildenhall the lead early on, finishing past Rovers keeper Graham Smith from a cross.

But Rovers were soon level when player-manager Shinn put in striker Ty Alleyne, who powered through the defence and rounded Josh Pope to score.

There were few other chances for either side after this as the match petered out to a draw, but Shinn was more than happy with the outcome.

"I'm delighted with the hard work and honesty of the players as we secured our Premier Division status, and we want to finish the season well so the hard work will continue right through," said Shinn.

"We have a superb changing room full of experienced and young Haverhill lads who want to build on this, and do well for the club and town."

Rovers play their final home game of the season against Diss Town this Saturday, with one more game away to Gorleston following that.

In the First Division, a mistake from goalkeeper Charlie Turner proved costly as Haverhill Borough went down 1-0 at home to Needham Market reserves in their Friday night encounter.

Borough started the brighter of the two sides, as Ryan Weaver's long-range effort was held well by the opposing goalkeeper James Bradbrook.

He denied George Darling seven minutes later after Harry Halls' searching through ball nearly found the Borough striker's feet.

At the other end, Turner did well to sweep the ball away from an on-rushing Needham striker.

It took until the verge of half time for either side to create a good chance when Weaver's cross found Jon Milne and his volley from the edge of the box hit the bar.

The only goal of the game came five minutes into the second half, as Lee Hurkett passed the ball back to Turner, whose attempted return pass was intercepted by Kyron Firad.

The Needham man then converted easily to give the away side the lead.

Borough responded quickly as Danny Shipton's lob was tipped over the bar three minutes later, but clear cut chances were proving elusive for both sides.

In the latter stages of the game, Borough applied pressure, but there was always the threat of a counter-attack from Needham. However, there were no further goals.

Borough finish their season this Saturday when they travel to Halstead Town.

In Tucker Gardner Cambs & Hunts Premier League, Division Two, Weston Colville lost to Khalsa by 16 runs.

Chasing Khalsa's score of 144 all out, Weston Colville were all out for 129.

Skipper Joe Robins said: "We took early wickets but failed to get out their main batsman."

"Our innings started poorly and at 70 for 8 we looked dead and buried, but Trev Westley and Matt Daniels gave us hope and in the end we fell agonisingly short."
